

GLOBAL FORUM
AGENDA ~ DELEGATES / TEACHERS / GUESTS

Contemporary World History Project
University of the Pacific, Stockton
Saturday May 10, 2008, 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

8:30 Delegates Arrive at Faye Spanos Concert Hall

- Delegates will first meet for a Plenary Session at Faye Spanos Concert Hall / Conservatory of Music, located near the main entrance of the university
- Buses park on Stadium Drive next to Faye Spanos to unload passengers.
- Teachers register at the welcome tables in front of the concert hall to pick up materials (folder, certificates, teacher/guests nametags, and other information). CDs and brochures about Pacific's International Studies Program will be available. Teachers are encouraged to take samples back to delegates.
- Guests can pick up copies of the agenda, nametags, maps and other materials at the welcome tables.
- Countries prepare own nametags beforehand
- Delegates agree on country's caucus venue for lunch
- Country names will be marked on walkways around the concert hall, and delegates line up behind country sign according to the order indicated below.

9:00 Opening Procession & Ceremony

Delegates processional via two doorways in the following order

Door A: Brazil, Germany, China, South Africa, South Korea, Turkey, Ukraine, United Kingdom

Door B: India, Japan, Nigeria, Mexico, Russia, France, Pakistan, USA

Welcome to Pacific

Margee Ensign
University of the Pacific

Opening Remarks

Simcon

Opening Statements per Country

2 minutes maximum
2 delegates per Country on stage

Delegations dismissed by issue—Delegates locate their facilitator in lawn area adjacent to concert hall.

Facilitators will hold up a large sign to meet with group and walk Country Delegations to their assigned breakout room.

10:15 Negotiation Session #1 – One breakout per issue, 2 facilitators per room

Introductions – Countries introduce their Delegates and briefly state what they hope to accomplish at the forum - 1 minute max each

Opening Statements – Delegations share their proposals; discussion and negotiations ensue with the purpose of creating a single international resolution

Negotiating session locations and facilitators :

ECONOMICS

Trade – Becky Hurtt, Kathy Scott – McCaffrey Center, Redwood Room 100

Finance – Christina Jennings, Glenn West – George Wilson Hall, Main Room

ENVIRONMENT

Global Warming — John Murray, Maianna Vogue - Rehearsal Hall, Instrumental Room

World Health – Ryan McKillop, Evelyn Ramos– Benerd School of Education, Room 208

HUMAN RIGHTS

Child Labor – Melanee Cardoza, Jenny Singleton – Wendell Phillips Center, Room 219

Gender/Minorities – Peggy Bauhaus, Alina Bogdanowicz - Buck Hall, Room 111

SECURITY

Terrorism – Caroline Bauhaus, Cristy Ostroff - Rehearsal Hall, Choral Room

Regional Conflict Mgt. – Dana Curran, Nicholas Pappas - Anderson Hall, Regents Room

12:00

LUNCH

Teachers or 2-3 Delegates pick up pizza in front of Knoles Hall (arranged by teacher/country), across from Burns Tower, for Teacher, Chaperone and Delegate lunches. Facilitators, guests and staff meet in the President’s Room of Anderson Hall, catered lunch provided. Facilitators bring 4 names/countries for closing ceremony nominations.

Caucus by Country

Delegations and their Teachers meet at a pre-determined caucus venue to discuss the first round of negotiations and strategize for the afternoon.

1:00

Negotiation Session #2

Discussions and negotiations resume from the morning. Delegations continue to create an international resolution for their issue area built from shared ideas, proposals and negotiations. Delegates ‘vote’ on various conflicting aspects of the proposal.

Whole group prepares the closing statement to articulate the accomplishments of the negotiating session; closing statement is delivered at closing ceremony by 2 selected speakers from each issue area.

Delegates are dismissed and are asked to return to country seats held during the Opening Ceremony.

2:30

Closing Ceremony – Follow in issue order listed on the agenda

Designated 2 delegates per issue on stage.

Closing Statements - 3 minutes maximum per issue.

Recognition & Thank You

Simcon

Ron Herring

Executive Director, CISP

3:30

Global Forum Adjourned

Post Global Forum – CWHP Timeline

Monday-Tuesday-Wednesday

Classes debrief simulation individually
Simcon posts a closing message to each country

Acknowledgements

We wish to extend a special Thank You to...

Margee Ensign, Dean of the School of International Studies, University of the Pacific, as the project's host, faculty advisor and, most of all, passionate and tireless advocate

Faye Spanos Concert Hall Staff and other Staff at Pacific who have helped make this a special event

The Pacific Tigers Athletics Association for your support

Straw Hat Pizza for your donation and generous discount

