

GLOBAL FORUM
AGENDA ~ DELEGATES / TEACHERS / GUESTS

Contemporary World History Project
University of the Pacific, Stockton
Saturday, May 14, 2011, 8:30 am-3:40 pm

8:30 Delegates Arrive at the Thomas J. Long Theater

- Delegates will first meet for a Plenary Session at the theater, located near the Benerd School of Education and the Atchley Clock Tower.
- Buses stop on Kensington Way to unload passengers, and delegates make their way to the Long Theater via a walkway between the Benerd School of Education and the Biological Sciences Center.
- Delegates agree on country's caucus venue for lunch.
- Teachers check in at the welcome tables adjacent to the theater to pick up materials (folder, certificates, teacher/guests nametags, and other information). CDs and brochures about Pacific's International Studies Program will be available. Teachers are encouraged to take samples back to delegates.
- Guests pick up copies of the agenda, maps, nametags and other materials at the welcome tables.
- Countries prepare own nametags beforehand.
- Country names will be marked near the theater, and delegates line up behind country sign according to the order indicated below.

9:00 Opening Procession & Ceremony

Delegate processional via two doorways in the following order

Door A: China, Germany, India, Mexico, Pakistan, United States

Door B: France, Japan, Russia, South Africa, South Korea

Welcome to Pacific

Opening Remarks

Julie Dickson, Master of Ceremonies

Opening Statements per Country 2 minutes maximum

2 delegates per Country on stage

Delegations dismissed by issue— Delegates locate their facilitator in areas adjacent to the theater. Facilitators will hold up a large sign to meet with group and walk country delegations to their assigned breakout room.

Nourishment - Delegates eat snacks they have brought as they walk with other countries to their breakout session.

10:15 Negotiation Session #1 – One breakout per issue, 2 facilitators per room

Introductions – Each country meets with another country, introduces the country to the rest of the delegates, and briefly states what that country hopes to accomplish at the forum - 1 minute max each introduction

Opening Statements – Delegations share their own proposals; discussion and negotiations ensue with the purpose of creating common ground and moving towards the creation of international resolution(s) – 2 minutes max

Negotiating session locations:

Please see breakout room list for details on room locations and topic assignments

12:30 LUNCH

Teachers or 2-3 Delegates pick up pizza (arranged by teacher/country) at the Anderson Lawn (near Library, across from Anderson Hall's President's Room), for Teacher, Chaperone and Delegate lunches.

Facilitators, guests and staff meet in the President's Room of Anderson Hall, catered lunch provided. Facilitators bring 4 names/countries for closing ceremony nominations.

Caucus by Country

Delegations and their Teachers meet at a pre-determined caucus venue to discuss the first round of negotiations and strategize for the afternoon.

1:30 Negotiation Session #2

Discussions and negotiations resume from the morning and/or delegations discuss a proposal selected by Simcon based on merit. Delegations continue to create international resolution(s) for their issue area built from shared ideas, proposals and negotiations. Delegates 'vote' on proposals as needed.

Whole group prepares the closing statement to articulate the accomplishments of the negotiating session; closing statement is delivered at closing ceremony by 2 selected speakers from each issue area.

Delegates are dismissed and are asked to return to country seats held during the Opening Ceremony.

2:40 Closing Ceremony – Issues called in alphabetical order Simcon

Designated 2 delegates per issue on stage.

Closing Statements - 3 minutes maximum per issue.
