

GLOBAL FORUM
AGENDA ~ DELEGATES / TEACHERS / GUESTS

Contemporary World History Project
University of the Pacific, Stockton
Saturday May 9, 2009, 8:30 a.m.-3:40 p.m.

8:30 Delegates Arrive at Faye Spanos Concert Hall

- Delegates will first meet for a Plenary Session at Faye Spanos Concert Hall / Conservatory of Music, located near the main entrance of the university
- Buses park on Stadium Drive next to Faye Spanos to unload passengers.
- Delegates agree on country's caucus venue for lunch
- Teachers register at the welcome tables in front of the concert hall to pick up materials (folder, certificates, teacher/guests nametags, and other information). CDs and brochures about Pacific's International Studies Program will be available. Teachers are encouraged to take samples back to delegates.
- Guests can pick up copies of the agenda, nametags, maps and other materials at the welcome tables.
- Countries prepare own nametags beforehand
- Country names will be marked on walkways around the concert hall, and delegates line up behind country sign according to the order indicated below.

9:00 Opening Procession & Ceremony

Delegates processional via two doorways in the following order

Door A: Germany, United Kingdom, Brazil, Mexico, Japan, India, United States

Door B: France, Nigeria, Pakistan, Argentina, South Africa, China, Turkey

Welcome to Pacific

Margee Ensign
University of the Pacific

Opening Remarks

Master of Ceremonies

Opening Statements per Country

2 minutes maximum
2 delegates per Country on stage

Delegations dismissed by issue—Delegates locate their facilitator in lawn area adjacent to concert hall. Facilitators will hold up a large sign to meet with group and walk Country Delegations to their assigned breakout room.

10:15 Negotiation Session #1 – One breakout per issue, 2 facilitators per room

Introductions – Each country meets briefly with another country, introduces the country to the rest of the delegates, and briefly states what that country hopes to accomplish at the forum - 1 minute max each

Opening Statements – Delegations share their own proposals; discussion and negotiations ensue with the purpose of creating common ground and moving towards the creation of an international resolution – 2 minutes max

Negotiating session locations:

Please see breakout room list for details on room locations and issue assignments. All breakout room buildings are circled on the campus map.

12:00 LUNCH

Teachers or 2-3 Delegates pick up pizza (arranged by teacher/country) at the Anderson Lawn (near Library, across from Anderson Hall's President's Room), for Teacher, Chaperone and Delegate lunches.

Facilitators, guests and staff meet in the President's Room of Anderson Hall, catered lunch provided. Facilitators bring 4 names/countries for closing ceremony nominations. An Awards Ceremony, the Joan Benton Award for Exemplary Teaching in International Studies, will take place by 1:00 pm in the President's Room.

Caucus by Country

Delegations and their Teachers meet at a pre-determined caucus venue to discuss the first round of negotiations and strategize for the afternoon. If time permits, a tour of the campus may be taken.

1:10 Negotiation Session #2

Discussions and negotiations resume from the morning. Delegations continue to create international resolution(s) for their issue area built from shared ideas, proposals and negotiations. Delegates 'vote' on proposals as needed.

Whole group prepares the closing statement to articulate the accomplishments of the negotiating session; closing statement is delivered at closing ceremony by 2 selected speakers from each issue area.

Delegates are dismissed and are asked to return to country seats held during the Opening Ceremony.

2:40 Closing Ceremony – Delegates share an Overview of their Accomplishments per Issue

Designated 2 delegates per issue on stage.
Closing Statements - 3 minutes maximum per issue.

Recognition & Thank You

Master of Ceremonies

Ron Herring

Executive Director, CISP

3:40 Global Forum Adjourned

Post Global Forum – CWHP Timeline

Monday-Tuesday-Wednesday

Classes debrief simulation individually
Simcon posts a closing message to each country

Acknowledgements

We wish to extend a special Thank You to...

Margee Ensign, Dean of the School of International Studies, University of the Pacific, as the project's host, faculty advisor and, most of all, passionate and tireless advocate

Faye Spanos Concert Hall Staff and other Staff at Pacific who have helped make this a special event

The Pacific Tigers Athletics Association for your support

Straw Hat Pizza for your donation and generous discount

